

Toe-tapping, side-splitting musicals!

Pupils not only get the opportunity to perform a brand new show before publication, but also to work alongside its best-selling author, Craig Hawes! These hour-long musical comedies are perfect for primary schools, full of catchy songs, great characters, witty humour and a wide range of roles to suit every pupil. Past shows include Pirates Of The Curry Bean, Porridge and What A Knight - each going on to be international best sellers performed by thousands of schools worldwide, but performed by our Theatre Week schools first!

A valuable experience that doesn't break the bank!

Budgets are always tight, which is why we keep our services affordable (less than a week of two supply teachers!) Our all-inclusive package covers performing, copying and filming licences, so you can be sure there are no hidden extras! Many schools offset the cost in various ways, including sale of tickets, programmes, refreshments, DVDs, raffle tickets and pupil contributions.

“ After 7 years of fantastic Theatre Week musicals, these productions are still the highlight of our school year. Buzzing children, proud parents and happy staff - what more could you ask for? ”

Clare Mackinder -
Head Teacher, Ranby Primary School

School productions have never been so spectacular... or so EASY!

THEATRE WEEK

A fun-packed 'Show In A Week' workshop for your school, resulting in a dazzling performance of a brand new musical comedy that will excite your pupils and amaze your parents!

School Productions are great...

They're a wonderful way to share your pupils' talents with parents and the community, packed with learning opportunities from music and dance through to communication, confidence and teamwork. It brings pupils and staff together in a rewarding highlight of the school year, providing lasting memories for your children.

...but hard work!

The jobs are endless: you need to find willing staff with spare time and expertise, select a show, audition and cast children, direct drama, choreograph dances, organise costumes, make props and scenery, design posters and programmes and figure out the sound and lights. It all sounds like a recipe for sleepless nights and stressed staff!

Theatre Week does it all for you!

From show selection and auditions through to final performances, we really can do it all, neatly wrapped up in a fabulous one-week package. As well as expert tuition from performance specialists, we provide script, music, scenery, props, radio microphones, lights, costumes, tickets, posters and programmes. We have produced high quality Primary productions for 20 years, and as theatre professionals and experienced teachers you can trust us to deliver the expertise and enthusiasm to engage and enrich your pupils!

“ Theatre Week’s excellent specialist tuition has enabled our pupils to really shine. With consistently rave reviews from parents, we simply wouldn’t consider a school show without them - we now invite them twice a year! ”

Joanna Hall - Head Teacher, North Wheatley Primary School

So how does it work?

We work with up to 80 children, from a single class or year group through to an entire key stage or school. Prior to Show Week, we hold an Audition Day - a half-day to watch pupils audition and allocate roles to each child. Show Week is a fun-filled five days rehearsing the drama, songs and dances, culminating in Performance Day, with a dress rehearsal, matinee and evening performance.

You provide the pupils, we'll provide the rest!

Leave it all to us - we've got it covered! Theatre Week provides you with:
